ECHO

A show about the un-instagrammed reality of motherhood

Buckle up!
Let's take a trip down unplanned-pregnancy lane and journey through the perilous and often thankless terrain of motherhood.

We'll be tearing down some outdated ideologies and social stigmas along the way as we deal with relationship breakups and personal breakdowns. Next we'll tackle misogyny and the not so subtle pressure for women to procreate. Moving on to infertility and abortion - to be or not to be? You know, the fun stuff! According to our Facebook feeds, motherhood should be a blissful vacation of babycinco and infinite wonder... But what is really happening just out of frame?
