My name is Ivone. I'm 26 years old. I am originally from Biak Island, east Indonesia. I'm an experienced singer and dancer and have performed professionally as a member of a traditional cultural group in Jakarta.

In 2016 I choreographed and taught a group of people my traditional dance called Yospan which we performed at a public community event in Richmond.

Performance:

Papuan Traditional Dance Manbefor (2007-2013)	Ensemble Dancer	Jakarta, Indonesia
'Back to the future' (Dec 2015) Group devised performance	Penguin, Husband	Walker St Gallery/ La Mama Courthouse

Choreography:

- 'Sorong to Samarai' Yospan dances - West Papuan / PNG event Richmond (April, 2016)
 - 'Rocking for West Papua' Yospan dances – Bendigo Hotel, Collingwood (Oct, 2016)

Training:

- AMES/ LA MAMA Collaboration (Devised Performance, weekly intensive workshops leading to a live ensemble performance)

These workshops included acting training, improvisational and generative activities including practicing vocal projection and facial expression. We also rehearsed singing in a choir.

Special Skills:

- Experienced singer of traditional songs, singing in a group.
- Experienced dancer, wide repertoire of Papua Traditional dances
- Choreographer drawing on traditional Papuan dance traditions
- I am also a great cook and hairdresser.
- I am a native speaker of Indonesian (Bahasa)

NOTE: English is not my first language, after completing language studies at AMES I am currently studying a hospitality course.
