Shit Happens review from Melbourne Observer 2016

“Sandy Macgregor is mesmerising. She is a brilliant story teller with a story to tell. Whilst I did not know her or her work I knew of the shows she had been in and some of the famous people she had associated with.

To hear her tell of her highs and lows as an actress in Australia and the US was fascinating. Nothing is needed other than the woman herself.

Rather than another actor telling her story, she does so brilliantly, reliving every second and taking the audience with her on a powerful journey.

For seventy minutes I followed her story, visualising every joy as her eyes lit up and feeling the pain as she reminisced about the low times. I cried, I laughed and it was genuine.

Shit Happens deserves to be on the stage with a full house and Sandy Macgregor in full glory telling it, to anyone interested in the world of entertainment or anyone who likes a generous well told, honest human interest story. This woman is unique”
