Sensory Installations

Throughout The Festival

The marvellous art, sound, light and other emergent technology installations featured across HQ and throughout the whole of the festival ensure that every moment spent exploring will inspire and exhilarate. Everywhere you turn, new sensory surprises await.

Featured Works:

Sonic Shoebox, Lou Endicott - All the world's a garden, Lucy Davidson - Home, Melissa Savickas - The Elevation, Nothing But Flowers - Native Decoration, Sophia Constantine - Rage Manifesto, Ebony Hoiberg - Reflection and Remembrance.

Lloyd Jones Ensemble

Sunday 12 December 11.30am - 7.30pm

Writer, director, artist and inventor of extravagant, ridiculous and revolutionary ideas, Lloyd Jones will present a 'La Mama Finale' with the Lloyd Jones' Ensemble: to his adoring public. At 84 years young, Jones has worked with an evolving eclectic ensemble for almost fifty years. He is notorious for his experimental, boundary shattering, existential theatre and an important example one of La Mama's creative artists whose careers have been strongly shaped by the theatre.

Performances at:

11.30am, 1.45pm, 3.30pm, 5pm & 7pm

Please consult the website & box office on arrival for the precise location and duration for each event!
