

LA MAMA PRESENTS
WINTER 2022
5 JULY - 2 OCTOBER

While our delightful Autumn season still has a couple of crispy red weeks to go – we’re straight into launching Winter 2022! Running between July 3 and October 2 we’re showcasing works from emerging, established and iconic artists from Melbourne and afar, and we invite you to join in the fun.

Artists include: Spescha Barakat, Greg Carroll, Zoë Harlen, Milton, Alex Menglet and R. Johns, Michel Paul Tuomy and Cathy Hunt, James Howard, Milly Cooper, Justin Nott, Glenn Saunders, Laurence Strangio, Ron Elisha, Elnaz Sheshgelani, Stephen House, Adam Cass, Louis Dickins, John Bolton and Jayne Tuttle, Jane Clifton... among so many more...

We’re still programming shows that were postponed due to COVID: the highly anticipated ‘We Too Us Too Me Too Too’ will at last get its run at La Mama Courthouse, while ‘Little Brother Big Sister’ can finally finish the season it began in 2021.

Our VCE Drama production this term is award winning Skin of our Teeth Productions’ ‘Jane Eyre’, written and directed by Christine Davey.

Our La Mamica program will keep you warm through Winter with music, poetry and cabaret, thanks to our curators, Gemma Horbury, Isabel Knight and Amanda Anastasi.

La Mama for Kids workshop program presents ‘Musical Jam’ for pre-schoolers while Youth Led Ensemble continues for teens.

We continue our play readings and one-off events including a Romanian translation of ‘The Crow’s Letters’. It’s worth noting that three of this season’s shows: ‘Cheer Up Carl’, ‘Birthday Book of Songs’ and ‘The Measure of a Moment’ all began in our play reading series, so it’s an absolute delight to follow the trajectory of these pieces into their own seasons this Winter.

La Mama Mobile presents Dennis Coard’s ever popular autobiographical comedy ‘The Fall of the Roman Umpire’.

Our On Screen and livestream seasons continue and are proving a wonderful way to broaden the reach of La Mama as well as provide an accessible option for those unable to attend theatre at the moment.

We can’t wait to see you at HQ, the Courthouse or On Screen over Winter 2022.
