

LA MAMA PRESENTS

TEETH AND TONIC

BY MEGAN SCOLYER-GRAY

A dark comedy about friendship, empowerment and smashing the Patriarchy.

After an extended sold out season in the 2022 Melbourne International Fringe Festival, Teeth and Tonic is back with a vengeance as part of La Mama Summer, opening 20 March.

Frankie and Bec have been best friends for years. When Bec finally ends a toxic relationship they're forced to confront their greatest challenge yet... where to hide a body.

Teeth and Tonic is a cutting commentary on the treatment of women and the misogyny that permeates our society. Slay. This queer, feminist play is an exciting exploration of the ways our connections shape us, asking us to think critically about power structures and the necessity of positive relationships in driving growth. Don't worry there's also butt plug jokes. Oh, and a character who is a glass of Orange Juice! Serious stuff can also be silly.

Here are just a few things people had to say during our initial run:

"For anyone craving an audacious response to odious behaviour, Teeth and Tonic is the thing to see."
– Olivia Arcaro, ArtsHub

"This show is possibly the greatest original debut I've ever seen. Very timely and important themes, a fresh, cutting and extremely funny scrip" - 2022 Audience Member

"Gut wrenching, hilarious and so relevant. Incredible" - 2022 Audience Member
